

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

The parish of Bisham lies in the Hundred of Beynhurst and the County of Berkshire. It is bounded on the west and north by the River Thames, which divides it from the parish of Great Marlow in Buckinghamshire, and on the east and south by the parishes of Cookham, White Waltham and Hurley. The original parish contained two outlying hamlets, one called Stubbings, now separate from the mother parish, and situate on the top of the hill towards Maidenhead Thicket, the other called Temple, which lying on the river has given its name to the Mills and Lock.

The Church, with its chalk built Norman Tower, stands close by the river, and has, as noted in the Register, suffered in consequence from occasional floods.

The Manor of Bisham, after the dissolution of the Monastery here, eventually passed to Sir Philip Hoby, ambassador at the Court of the Emperor Charles V., who was succeeded by his brother Sir Thomas Hoby, ambassador at Paris in 1566. The Hoby family becoming extinct, towards the end of the eighteenth century the Manor and Abbey passed into the hands of G. Vansittart, Esq., whose descendant is the present owner.

The fall of the Monasteries and consequent cessation of such functions as they performed as chroniclers and recorders of local events, may well have drawn attention to the necessity of having some official records of births, deaths and marriages kept in trustworthy hands: but be this as it may, the idea of the official registration of such matters seems to have taken practical form in more than one way during the first half of the sixteenth century.

The first definite step towards the institution of ecclesiastical registers of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, seems to have been taken when a Royal mandate was issued by Thomas Cromwell as Vicar-general in 1538, throwing on the parochial clergy the duty of keeping such registers.

At Bisham however this mandate does not appear to have taken effect for some twenty years or more, for it is not till 1560 that our parish register begins.

The first volume is of parchment, enclosed in a cover of the same material; the leaves measure $7\frac{5}{8}'' \times 11\frac{1}{8}''$ and they are thirty-eight in number being paged in pencil—pp. 1-76. This volume covers the period 1560-1708 for Baptisms, Marriages and Burials; it appears to be complete with the exception of the last leaf which has disappeared and taken with it the burials for 1708, which are thus missing.

The Marriage Register in this volume has only one entry between 1647 and 1660, that being of a marriage in 1655, performed by one Anthony Baxter, a Justice of the Peace, in accordance with the Act of Parliament of 1653.*

All the entries in this volume from 1560 to 1605, vis., Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, are written in the same handwriting, and were evidently transcribed from the original records into this parchment book, in accordance with the Canon of Convocation of 1603. This Canon besides directing the Ministers to keep the parish registers, ordered that the earlier records should be transcribed on to parchment, and that copies of the register should be regularly transmitted to the Bishops' Registry.

It may be pointed out here that in this transcript there is an error of a year in the entry of the burial of Sir Thomas Hoby, which is given in the Register as taking place in 1565, whereas he did not die till 1566; his body being brought home from Paris for interment here.

The second volume is also of parchment and is bound in a vellum cover, lettered on the side in gold thus:—

BISHAM.

JAMES HARDING.

ROBERT LAWRENCE.

CHURCH WARDENS.

1708

* By this Act marriages thus performed by a Justice of the Peace were alone to be recognised as legal. Cf. Scobell's Collection of Acts, London, 1658.

It contains eighty-four leaves, measuring 8" x 10", the two first and two last being of paper, nine of these are blank, viz., those preceding the register of burials for 1709.

This volume covers the periods as under:—

For Baptisms, 1709-1812 (inclusive).

For Marriages, 1709-1753 ,,

For Burials, 1709-1812 ,,

The third volume is of paper bound in brown calf, folio, and lettered MARRIAGE REGISTER, BISHAM, BERKS, 1754; it contains Marriages and banns of Marriage, from May, 1754, to May, 1789.

The fourth volume is also of paper bound in brown calf, folio, and contains Marriages from September, 1789, to November, 1812, and banns of Marriage from July, 1789, to the present time.

Then follow three folio volumes bound alike in parchment and lettered in black on side, "Baptisms," "Marriages" and "Burials". Of these the volumes of Baptisms and Burials begin in 1813 and end in 1849, and the volume of Marriages begins in 1813 and ends in 1837, after these follow the volumes now in use.

There are also, in the custody of the Vicar, two parish rate books giving the names of those who paid to the rates, and a list of the items disbursed. The earlier of these begins in 1769, and ends in 1784; the second begins in 1800, and ends in 1813.

In examining the register for the first half of the eighteenth century one can hardly fail to notice the large number of Marriages celebrated here, in which neither party appear to have had any connection with the parish. Thus taking the twelve years from 1728 to 1739 inclusive, we have altogether sixty-three marriages, and in no less than thirty of these both the parties are described as of places other than Bisham.

With regard to the writing, that of the years 1560-1605 is by far the best, the worst period being the latter part of the seventeenth century. On the whole the register may be described as in very fair order, both as to writing and general condition.

End of Burials in old Register book

Vol. II.

On inside of cover at the beginning is the following :—

The Rev^d Sir Philip Hoby Bart by his Executor John Hoby Esq presents a small silver gilt chalice with a small gilt plate inscribed with I.H.S. together with a small Flint glass Bottle to contain the wine to the Rev^d Mr Gage Vicar of Bisham and to his Successors for ever to be employed in the administration of the Sacrament to sick people in their own houses: And it is the request of the said Sir Philip Hoby that a Memorandum of this gift be entered into the parish Register & be signed by the Church wardens. Which said gift I this Eighteenth day of July 1766 rece^d of the said John Hoby Esq
